New Albany Chamber of Commerce Announces Delta Award Winners

New Albany, OH – November 24, 2015 – The New Albany Chamber of Commerce annually honors businesses and community leaders for their significant roles in driving community and economic growth and excellence. To be considered for a Delta Award, the organization or person must be setting the standard for excellence and innovation with their business practices and community involvement.

Nominations are solicited throughout the year, reviewed and selected by the Nomination & Awards Committee; and voted on by the Board of Trustees. The awards will be presented to each of the following winners at the Annual Meeting & Delta Awards Presentation Luncheon, Wednesday, December 2, 2015, 11:30am – 1:00pm at the New Albany Country Club. 2015 Delta Award Winners:

- Outstanding Large Business Award: Aetna
- Outstanding Medium Business Award: e-Cycle
- Outstanding Small Business Award: Cooke Demers LLC
- Outstanding Citizen Award: Mayor Nancy Ferguson
- Outstanding Young Professional Award: Ashley Rumschlag
- Outstanding Program: Mount Carmel Health System & Operation Walk USA

“The Delta Awards is the Chamber’s opportunity to recognize and honor these outstanding businesses and people for their contributions to our community,” Board of Trustee Chair, Tara Abraham noted. “They represent innovation, creativity, and collaboration; they are examples of the enormous potential of businesses in New Albany.”

Each year, the awards are presented to individuals who strive toward the highest levels of professional accomplishment, excel in their chosen field, devote time and energy to their community in a meaningful way, and actively support and inspire others reach their full potential.

“We are proud to accept this award. Aetna has a culture of striving every day to deliver the highest quality and value possible for our clients; but everything thing we do starts with our core values.” Beth Himes, Chamber Trustee and Aetna Vice President shared. “Our values guide us in all areas, including the importance we place on employee engagement and community service in the cities in which we live and work.”

Outgoing Chamber Board of Trustees will be recognized, and the 2016 slate of incoming board members will be officially ratified. “This is one of our highly anticipated and attended events and we expect it to sellout,” commented Cherie Nelson, Chamber Executive Director. “These award winners embody what the chamber is all about – inspirational leadership, excellence, and community engagement.”

Event sponsors are Yard Solutions, CityScene and the Callard Company. Tickets can be purchased online at newalbanychamber.com; $35 for chamber members; $40 for non-members; $280/table of 10.
